Care for yourself to care for others

Have you ever noticed how some people seem to be successful, happy, relaxed and living their life purpose; yet others seem to be stuck in a rut, going through life unhappy, unfulfilled, busy, in a tailspin and not sure where to go next? Are you focused on your priorities? Do you manage your time well? Do you try to do too many things at once? Wellness coach, Jill Burchmore will lead various trainings such as how to align your life with what is most important to you, goal setting strategies, nutrition, business practices and more. Life does not need to feel chaotic. As a Certified Chi Running Instructor, Jill teaches people how to conserve energy and move forward while running. Whether you're running or not, proper posture, alignment and conservation of energy are crucial for a balanced life. Jill's presentation will help you take care of yourself and therefore, take you to the next level and better care for others.

"Being alive is a gift...living life happy is a choice."

"Pain is inevitable, suffering is optional"

"Motivation gets you started, Habit keeps you going"

"Consistency is Key"
